

Reservations now open for: 2024 Rhode Island Law Day Classroom Programs

On Rhode Island Law Day, thousands of Rhode Island students, teachers, judges, and lawyers share important, timely, and lively law related education lessons. This year's Rhode Island Law Day is May 3, 2024.

Rhode Island Law Day classroom program lessons are open to all public, independent, private, and parochial Rhode Island middle and upper schools' 7th to 12th grade classes, and feature in-school, one classroom period participation of a Rhode Island judge and lawyer team. To promote active student participation and the best possible educational experience, the Rhode Island Law Day classroom program topic choice focuses on an issue of direct relevance to students.

The 2024 Rhode Island Law Day Program, Voices of Democracy, teaches students the importance of Americans participating in the 2024 elections by deepening their understanding of the electoral process; discussing issues in honest and civil ways; turning out to vote; and, finally, helping to move the country forward to continue free and fair elections. In this way, Americans ensure that our government remains responsive to the wishes of the people.

Classroom program materials including topic description, recommended discussion points and role-playing suggestions will be distributed closer to the program.

To ensure your participation, we encourage you to complete and return your reservation form today. The reservation deadline for the 2024 Rhode Island Law Day Classroom Programs is Friday, February 9, 2024.

Please note: The 2024 Rhode Island Law Day Essay Contest, open to only 10th and 11th grade students attending schools in Rhode Island, will use the same topic, Voices of Democracy, as the basis for the essay entries. Information for the essay contest will be sent out in early March. The due date for entries will be Monday, May 13, 2024.
