The Bridge the Gap Mandatory Continuing Legal Education Program was designed by the Rhode Island Supreme Court to help new Rhode Island attorneys make a smooth transition from law school to law practice. This one-day program is presented by a group of experienced practitioners who provide practical information about the business, ethical and professional components of successfully practicing law.

According to RI Supreme Court Rule 3.3 this course (or proof of exemption eligibility) is a requirement for new attorneys. For those admitted between July 1, 2018 - June 30, 2019, the program must be completed by June 30, 2020. For those admitted from July 1, 2019 to June 30, 2020, the program must be completed no later than June 30, 2021.

Continental breakfast and lunch are included. You must preregister to attend. To register, complete the attached form and mail to the Rhode Island Bar Association. Or register on line at www.ribar.com*

An on-demand broadcast of this program is available for those who cannot attend in person. Registration for the on-demand program must be completed on-line. Registration is available on-line only at www.ribar.com. Click on the CLE seminar calendar then click on CLE On-Line computer icon.
