

2022 Hon. Francis J. Darigan, Jr. Rhode Island Law Day Essay Contest
Guidelines and Rules

Toward a More Perfect Union: The Constitution in Times of Change

The Rhode Island Judiciary, the Rhode Island Bar Association, and the Rhode Island Police Chief's Association are pleased to announce the nineteenth annual Hon. Francis J. Darigan, Jr. Rhode Island Law Day Essay Contest. The Contest is open to all Rhode Island 10th, 11th, and 12th grade students attending school in Rhode Island, but only to those grades. Through the generosity of the Rhode Island Bar Association and the Rhode Island Police Chief's Association, the first place essay author receives a $1,000 scholastic award and an engraved trophy cup. The winner's school receives a permanent plaque and the annual Law Day Essay Award Trophy to display until the next Contest. This year, a second place essay author will also be recognized with a $250 scholastic award donated by the Edward P. Gallogly Family Law Inns of Court. We encourage all 10th, 11th, and 12th grade Rhode Island students to participate. The following guidelines and rules apply:

The 2022 Rhode Island Law Day Essay Contest

All essay entrants must, in no more than 1,000 words, discuss how the Constitution allows our government to adapt to changing times, and why is it important that the government be able to adapt in this way?

Background information on this topic Toward a More Perfect Union: The Constitution in Times of Change can be found on the Bar Association website www.ribar.com under: For The Public – 2022 Law Day. Students are also encouraged to draw on additional resources, but all outside information must be properly credited.

A completed Student Entry form, signed by the sponsoring teacher, must accompany each essay entry. Essays must not exceed 1,000 words. The essays are reviewed and the first and second place winners are selected by members of the faculty of the Roger Williams University School of Law.

All entries must be received no later than Monday, May 16, 2022.

Essays are submitted to:

ecute@ribar.com

OR

2022 Law Day Essay Contest
Rhode Island Bar Association
41 Sharpe Drive
Cranston, RI 02920

Winners shall be announced on or before June 1, 2022.

Please direct any questions concerning the 2022 Rhode Island Law Day Essay Contest to: The Rhode Island Bar Association: Erin Cute, Director of Communications, by telephone: 401-421-5740 or email: ecute@ribar.com