RHODE ISLAND BAR FOUNDATION

Dear Scholarship Applicant:

Michael A. St. Pierre
President

Deborah M. Tate
Vice President

Lauren E. Jones
Secretary

James A. Jackson
Treasurer

Helen Desmond McDonald
Executive Director

Enclosed you will find an Application for the Thomas F. Black, Jr. Memorial Scholarship of the Rhode Island Bar Foundation for academic year 2019 - 2020 . The scholarship is a one year, non-renewable award, for full-time students who are Rhode Island residents who will be entering their first year of law school in September, 2019.

For the academic year 2019 - 2020, the Foundation intends to grant two scholarships in the amount of $20,000.00 each. The Foundation's Scholarship Committee seeks applications from candidates without regard to race, color, religion, country of ancestral origin, handicap, age, sex, or sexual orientation. The Committee will endeavor to make awards to assure that, over time, the recipients reflect the diversity of the Rhode Island population.

The objective of the Bar Foundation's Scholarship Program is to support high legal practice standards in Rhode Island by providing financial assistance to Rhode Island residents who show promise that they are likely to become outstanding lawyers, hopefully in Rhode Island, who will adhere to such standards and who will need such assistance in order to study law at quality law schools.

Scholarship awards shall be exclusively for tuition and related expenses for persons who enroll as full-time students in programs leading to the award of the L.L.B. or J.D. degree offered by law schools located in one of the United States or in the District of Columbia and which are accredited by the American Bar Association. Each Scholarship award will be made on the basis of:

1. Demonstrated financial need, based upon your personal and family financial circumstances, as well as the extent in which you have helped to finance your undergraduate career by past and present part-time and/or fulltime work efforts;
2. Superior academic performance;
3. Community and public service, and
4. Details as to the reasonable likelihood that you will in the future provide and contribute highly professional legal services to the citizens of Rhode Island.

Please complete and return (1) the Application; and (2) a Personal Statement, along with the information required below, to the Rhode Island Bar Foundation, 41 Sharpe Drive, Cranston, RI 02920, so as to arrive by March 29, 2019. The Personal Statement should convey something about your personal education and background, your personal and family situation, why you believe you would be a worthy recipient of the scholarship, or any other information you feel would be helpful to the Scholarship Committee in considering your Application.

It is important that you address in detail, in your Application and in your Personal Statement, each of the four guidelines listed on the previous page. In particular, please keep in mind that applicants have the burden of demonstrating their financial need to our Scholarship Committee. A detailed explanation of the extent to which you can or cannot obtain family financial assistance in your first year in law school should be submitted as part of your Personal Statement.

You should arrange to have the Registrar of your college or university forward a copy of your academic transcript to the Bar Foundation.

Two letters of recommendation are required from persons who know you. One of the letters should be from a school official familiar with your academic record. Identify the persons writing these letters on the Application and request that they forward their letters directly to the Rhode Island Bar Foundation. We recommend that you provide them with addressed, stamped envelopes for that purpose.

You must also forward to us a copy of the SAR report from the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), as well as a copy of your 2018 Federal Tax Return.

Finally, for your information, we are enclosing a form entitled Financial Package. Once you have been admitted to a Law School which you choose to attend next year, you must immediately complete, sign, date and return the enclosed form to the Rhode Island Bar Foundation. If, however, you have been admitted to one or more Law Schools and have not yet chosen which one you will attend, you must complete, sign, date and return a separate Financial Package form for each Law School which has accepted you and which you might possibly attend. You must also thereafter advise the Rhode Island Bar Foundation of any subsequent choice by you to attend a Law School which has admitted you. All such up-to-date and completed Financial Package forms must be returned to the Rhode Island Bar Foundation as soon as possible.

The Committee reserves the right to decline to consider an incomplete Application. If you have any questions, please call the Rhode Island Bar Foundation office at (401) 421-6541 or email: gcaldwell@ribar.com.

The Rhode Island Bar Foundation welcomes your scholarship Application and extends best wishes as you plan to enter law school.

Sincerely Yours,

Ginny Caldwell
Program Director
